

Campus Highlights

Library—technologically the most advanced in the City University of New York system. The library's Woody Tanger Auditorium is capable of supporting video-conferencing and interactive meetings and workshops. The library also offers four computerized classrooms and a Faculty Training and Development Laboratory. Community residents may sign up for a "Friends of the Library" card that will allow them to gain lending privileges. 3

Brooklyn College Library

Bike Racks—safe places to lock up your bike are all around the campus. The College has provided them in highly visible locations at all entrances to the campus.

Cafeteria—in Boylan Hall basement is a full-service dining room, serving everything from sandwiches to three-course meals, including hot and cold entrees and vegetarian selections. Check out the Georgian Room for its buffet, too.

Campus and Community Safety Services Office—is dedicated to helping the community maintain a safe environment for everyone to enjoy. Head here if you would like an escort to your car or nearby transportation areas, or if you have lost or found anything.

Information Booth—the place you'll find the answer to hundreds of questions! Located on the first floor of Boylan Hall, the nice students who run the booth know everything you need to know about the College—from where offices are, to how to get a transcript.

Learning Center—first floor; Boylan Hall, tutoring is available for students needing help writing term papers, preparing for tests, or understanding course work. Tutoring is provided by extremely accomplished students. Best of all, it's free!

Lily Pond—one of the most storied and beloved spots on campus since it was created in 1935. It is a quietly beautiful garden with benches for reading, relaxing, or sitting with friends. 18

Lily Pond

Magner Center for Career Development and Internships—1303 James Hall, helps students obtain valuable job skills even before they graduate. The center's online internship bank lists more than 700 opportunities in Fortune 500 companies, such as Goldman Sachs, Pricewaterhouse Coopers, Time Inc., and Warner Music Group.

Morton and Angela Topfer Library Café—a comfortable, quiet computing facility open 24/7. There's even a Starbucks coffee bar for light refreshments. 17

Library Café

Student Center—a home away from home for students, with a large, well-equipped game room, a computer lab, and offices for Student Government, including the Graduate Student Organization (GSO). It also serves as a conference, meeting, and banquet facility—a unique resource meeting the needs of the business community and residents. 13

West Quad Building—the College's newest building. Opened in fall 2009, the building houses a one-stop Student Services Center, including Bursar, Registration, Financial Aid, and Admission Offices. It is also the home of the Physical Education and Exercise Science Department and state-of-the-art athletic facilities. Staff and community members may come here to obtain a recreational pass to use the gym and pool. 9

West End Building—more than 250 computers are available here, plus one of the most comfortable lounge areas on campus, a video-conference facility, scanners, DVD writing, and laser printers. The Film Department, student club offices, and the Office of Student Testing are also located here. 8

Brooklyn Center for the Performing Arts at Brooklyn College—a 2,350-seat, newly refurbished theater where the Performing Arts Center presents world-class artists and productions. For information on the center's seasonal presentations, visit the center's website at www.brooklyncenter.com. 2

All building entrances are ADA accessible.

Brooklyn College embodies the vitality, creativity, ingenuity, and accomplishments of the borough it calls home. Since its founding in 1930, the College has offered an innovative liberal arts curriculum that prepares students for the real world, giving them a breadth of knowledge and experience that leads to success in the competitive and ever-changing global marketplace. Many of our students are immigrants or the children of immigrants, often the first in their families to attend college. Brooklyn College is noted for its outstanding faculty, its beautiful campus, and its commitment to the greater community. Brooklyn College has been designated one of “America’s Best Value Colleges” by the Princeton Review for many years.
