Application

Guide

Non-Degree Short-term Study at Brooklyn College

Dear Student:

Brooklyn College welcomes students from around the world. Students come to Brooklyn College because of our reputation for offering the very best education in the best city in the world. We have laid out this Application Guide to help the prospective international student navigate the process.

Please review the following steps to completing the visiting application and the DS-2019 application:

- Non-Degree application: Student must complete Brooklyn College's J-1 student visitor application to attend Brooklyn College as a visiting student.
- DS-2019 Application: Student must complete the Student Exchange Visitors Application Form for the DS-2019.
- Financial Documents: Students must submit bank statements from their sponsors and/or letters from their university guaranteeing coverage of their tuition and fees and/ or exchange agreement between Brooklyn College and their university.
- Home institution acknowledgement: Students must submit a letter on official letterhead from their home institution acknowledging that the student will be participating in a study abroad program at Brooklyn College.
- Passport Biographical Page
- Medical Insurance Attestation: J-1 students must have medical insurance. Please read and sign the attached attestation. Once students arrive to Brooklyn College, they must provide proof of their insurance policy
- Orientation Requirement: All students on a J-1 Visa must attend a mandatory orientation about their J-1 status. Please read and sign the Orientation Requirement form.
- Embassy Appointment: After receiving the DS-2019 and letter of acceptance letter from Brooklyn College the student needs to pay the SEVIS Fee and make an appointment with the U.S. embassy to obtain their J-1 visa.
- Immunization Record: New York State requires all enrolling students to provide documentation proving immunity to measles, mumps, and rubella. Please have your health professional complete the Student Immunization Form.

Please submit these documents to the Office of International Student and Scholar Services
Aguerin@brooklyn.cuny.edu or iss@brooklyn.cuny.edu.
