

Taichung City, Taiwan
Chinese Language - All levels

3 credit - Modern Languages Department

Dates: June 1, 2024 – June 29, 2024 (Summer Session I)

Hosted by: National Chung Hsing University - NCHU

In addition to the academic courses, the students will participate in excursions and cultural activities that will introduce them to life in Taiwan, and more broadly Asian History and culture.

This program is open to undergraduate students from all majors.

Taichung is Taiwan's second largest city. It has a highly developed industrial and commercial base, thriving cultural scene, friendly people, and beautiful scenery, all of which contribute to its status as an international-class city. Centrally located in the western half of Taiwan, Taichung welcomes visitors with a pleasant climate throughout the year. The city first rose as a major political, economic, transportation, and cultural hub during the Japanese occupation period, due highway, railway, and shipping port development during that time.

Fee: $2095 includes tuition, housing in a hotel, breakfast, insurance, and selected activities and excursions.

Not Included: Flight, and Pers. expenses.

Each student gets $700 stipend in Taiwan.

Applications Due: Friday, March 29, 2024
